

I want the WI no call list to remain as it is and not let special interest groups try to change it. I also believe you should drop the rule of having to sign up every two years and make it read that if a person wants to get the calls they can drop their name from the list. In other words make the list permanent unless otherwise informed.
also add no calls from politicians especially. Thanks